I'm Ralphy

— UI / UX Designer

An Imagineer based in Ooty, India.

I convert my super powers into Pixels and I believe in working directly with the end-user from the beginning, to create solutions that are genuinely desirable, feasible and viable for the business and the users.

As Walt Disney once said, " To be successful you must be unique, you must be so different that if people want what you have, they must come to you to get it." -- I Love this quote cause, It defines me.
